

Blue sky thinking? You really can get more sales now.

Select Access gives you cost-effective turn-on/turn-off promotion when you need it most.

Select Access sales reps are in the field, ready to increase demand for your established or seasonal product now. Typical time to market is about four weeks, including training.

With Select Access, you share the cost of the sales team but not the sales call. So your brand receives a high percentage of economical first-position details — the proven way to maintain key physician relationships and boost prescription activity.

For rapid sales impact, call Select Access at 866-735-3222.
